

ORBITALS

In order to help you prepare in advance your application, you will find in this document the main questions asked in the online application, besides a CV to be sent.

About you

- We want to know who you are. Please feel free to represent yourself however works best for you. Kindly select the format in which you would like to respond:
 - Text (max 1250 characters)
 - Sound (max 2 minutes @ 5MB)
 - Video (max 2 minutes, please provide links)
 - Visual material (max 5MB)

About your practice

- Tell us more about your practice, areas of research, and/or specific interests. (max 1250 characters)
- Tell us about your most recent project. What was it and where did you present it? (max 1250 characters)
- What are you working on now? (max 1250 characters)
- Why are you interested in joining this trip? Please describe the trip's relevance to your practice and tell us about any particular people or places you would like to connect to. (max 1250 characters)
- As described in the open call, this trip will focus on questions around the right to land, artistic forms of gentrification, and occupying space. Are these subjects relevant to your practice, and if so, how? (max 1250 characters)
- Have you been to Brazil before?
 - No
 - Yes. If your trip had an artistic purpose, please specify where you visited and what was your project about. (max 600 characters)