

Art-Time Residencies: Performance

To help you prepare for your application, you will find in this document the main questions asked in the online application form. You will have to fill it out as well as send us your CV and portfolio.

- Working title of your project.
- Please describe yourself, your artistic practice, and interests. (1500 characters).
- What is the main idea/concern your work is engaged with? (1500 characters).
- Please describe the project. (2500 characters).
- What steps of development did you already complete, and what is your production plan up to the residency period in 2024? (1500 characters).
- What do you want to accomplish during your residency at BUDA? Please include any special technical requirements you anticipate (this will be requested in more detailed later). (1500 characters).
- Do you already have producers or co-producers? If not, how are you planning to finance the production of your work? (1500 characters).